CREATIVE EXPRESSIONS CONTEST

As part of Granby Racial Reconciliation's Granby Celebrates Juneteenth Arts and Education Festival, community members of all ages are invited to submit creative expressions on the theme

“WHAT JUNETEENTH MEANS TO ME.”

Expressions may include artwork, poems, dance, etc. – Let your creativity flow!

Cash awards for 1st and 2nd Honors will be given by age categories: K-5th grade, 6-8th grade, HS and Adult

To submit an entry or for more information email: info@GranbyRacialReconciliation.com

Submission format: Written material (Word, PDF, or JPEG), Audio/Visual art (MP4 or MOV), 2D or 3D art (a photo or video). Submissions may be shared publicly at the GRR booth during the Juneteenth Celebration on June 17, 2023 (rain date 6/18) at Salmon Brook Part in Granby.

Submissions may also be shared on GRR's website, www.GranbyRacialReconciliation.com.

Arrangements for display at the event will be finalized after submissions are reviewed by the GRR Contest Committee.
